
Direction: H-x only. Full complex six-component action retained; no ASR/conjugacy projection.
PySCF uses its own converged primitive/three-cell reference and eight cosine/sine displacement endpoints.
This validates one complex-q direction of the declared finite model, not every IFC column or bulk convergence.